Who Is JetLease?

In the most safety-conscious arena, the transportation industry, aviation clients trust the JetLease professionals to provide them with the most appropriate aircraft to fit their needs and finances. Since 1983, JetLease has set the highest standard in private aviation services. With offices in Palm Beach, Cleveland, Detroit, Newport Beach, Moscow, and Germany our promise to offer long range support is assured.

Our Quality Standards

Quite simply, we will not endorse a plane that does not pass our scrutiny and is not priced fairly. JetLease will not put our client in an aircraft that does not meet our stringent standards. We remain dedicated throughout the entire sale, lease or ownership process, leaving every client confident about their choices and serving them long after they acquire or divest their aircraft.

How We Do Business

Whether you are looking to purchase a new aircraft or sell your current one, our team ranks among the industry's elite in professional brokerage services.

With unquestioned integrity, we simply will not let a client put pen to paper unless all parties are satisfied with the deal on the table and we have done our due diligence to ensure that the transaction is more than satisfactory.

Our reputation is on the line with each sale, so we strive to exceed our client's expectations - every time. Our staff has a passion for the aviation industry and that enthusiasm drives our activities at every level.

JetLease has a client database that consists of over 5000 individuals and corporations and has over the last decade completed transactions in excess of $2.5 Billion Dollars.

About JetLease

Russell W. Dise
President of JetLease
Phone: 561.242.4393
Email: RDise@JetLease.com

Russell W. Dise, President of JetLease since 1983, is the leading authority in the corporate aircraft leasing industry. Mr. Dise has a BSBA in Accounting from The Ohio State University, where he played ice hockey and football, and received a Graduate Degree from the Tax Executive Institute, Michigan State University. Mr. Dise served as the Federal Tax Manager for a Fortune 100 company prior to his interest in the aircraft leasing, finance, and sales industry.

Mr. Dise has participated in well over 1000 aircraft transactions ranging from Fortune 100 Companies, privately held companies, wealthy individuals and celebrities from various parts of the world. Transaction sizes range from $2,500,000 to $45,000,000 consisting mainly of Boeing, Gulfstream, Canadair, Raytheon, Lear, and Citation products. JetLease is involved in approximately 50 transactions a year with a total asset volume of approximately $250,000,000.00.

An accomplished pilot flying Corporate Air Charter in the 80's, Mr. Dise understands the importance between the operational side and the financial intricacies of aircraft ownership. This unique mix of knowledge and experiences has enabled Mr. Dise to position JetLease as an industry innovator.

Mr. Dise invests a majority of his spare time and energy to the betterment of The USA Olympic Ice Hockey Developmental Program and to the Ohio High School All-Star hockey program, known as Team Ohio. He has developed an elite high school All-Star program that gives high school athletes access to a variety of exposure at the professional, college and Junior A hockey level. To date this program has produced well over 130 college student athletes, three of whom had the good fortune to sign NHL contracts.
